

HOW OUR WORLD WORKS

A Series of Evening Talks at Woodborough School, supported by the School Governors. All pupils in Years 5 & 6 are invited to attend. Talks will last for up to 25 mins followed by Q&A.

27 September, 6.30pm

TALES FROM THE RIVER BANK

A guide to the wildlife in Wiltshire's rivers

Harriet Alvis is Project Manager for Bristol Avon Rivers Trust (BART). She is responsible for everything from investigative walkover surveys to funding applications to win money for projects. The trust runs a wide range of projects including education, land management, river restoration and natural flood management. Come along to hear talk about the wide range of wildlife that can be found in and around our rivers, as well as what we can do to protect it!

15 November, 6.30pm

BICYCLE SAFARI

6000 km across the deserts, mountains and plains of Africa

In February 2018 Pewsey based violinist & music teacher Iona Hassan headed out on an adventure across Africa. Over 6,000km by bicycle and only 2 months to do it. Meeting her travel buddy, Anna, for the first time at Dubai Airport, the pair headed off on their amazing journey, over the mountains of Tanzania, through the rains in Malawi, being chased by a lion in Botswana and pedalling on through the searing heat of the Namib Desert. What did she learn? Did the lion catch her and were the new cycle buddies still talking at the end of the epic trip? Come along and find out!

7 February, 6.30pm

LIFE IN A BRITISH EMBASSY

A Georgian Adventure

In February 2016 the Sadler family left Pewsey to live in Tbilisi, Georgia - at the crossroads of Asia and Europe. It has the highest mountains in Europe and lies on one of the ancient Silk Roads to Asia. It was invaded in 2008 by Russia. Come and hear Tiffany Sadler's tales of life living and working in the British Embassy, Georgia.

23 May, 6.30pm

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF WILTSHIRE AIR AMBULANCE

Come along and discover the world of flying and saving lives working for the amazing charity Wiltshire Air Ambulance, the essential helicopter emergency rescue service.