

The Woodborough Reading Review

By Max Poole and Izzy Fenby

"There is no such thing as a child who hates to read; there are only children who have not found the right book."

Welcome to this year's first edition of the Reading Review. This newsletter will highlight multiple books each term. We think that you will like the recommended books. Also it will show you some recently-released books that we think will be a great success.			Reception Recommendation By Bertie	Leaf Man by Louis Ehler	Leaf Man is a good book because it's all about a man made out of leaves and swirls him around the world on an adventure.
Yr6 Recommendation By Max	Brightstorm by Vashti Hardy	Arthur and Maudie Brightstorm are shocked by the news their father died in a failed attempt to reach the South Pole. Then they must embark on the journey of a life-time.	Yr1 Recommendation By Leo	Room on the broom by Julia Donaldson	I really like this book because it is a funny rhyming story. The witch in the story has a cat and I really like cats. The pictures are good. If it didn't have pictures, I would not like it so much.
Yr5 Recommendation By Florence	Rooftoppers by Katherine Rundell	I found it exciting and adventurous because Sophie tries really hard to find her Mum and succeeds.	Yr2 Recommendations By Elsa G	Clarice Bean Spells Trouble by Lauren Child	It's about a girl who isn't a very good speller. She has a special book that she writes in. I like this book because it teaches me about hard spellings and how to use a dictionary.
Yr4 Recommendations By Gilbert	Children of noisy village by Astrid Lindgren	Straight away this book will catch your eye with the beautiful illustrations on the front cover. The children of noisy village are: Lasse, Bosse, Ollie, Lisa, Brita and Anna. They have crazy adventures like running from an angry goat and sleeping in the hayloft. So if you like gentle comedy then you should read this book.	Yr3 Recommendations By Robert	Secrets according to Humphrey by Betty G	Really good because the secret scribbles are funny, maybe some pictures, the chapters would look better.

TEACHER REVIEWS		AUTHOR IN THE SPOTLIGHT
Storm Keeper's Island by Catherine doyle	Recommended by Mrs Wren. When Fionn Boyle sets foot on Arranmore Island, it begins to stir beneath his feet... This mesmerizing adventure story had me captivated from the start. I would recommend this to children age 9+ who love fast-paced adventures!		Willow Class have written letters to Emma Carroll this week as we have read Letters from the Lighthouse as our class novel this term. We hope that we will hear back from her over half term and will add this to our new Author Wall.
Girl of Ink and Stars by Kiran Millwood Hargrave	Recommended by Mrs Ashby and Polly in Year 5 A really exciting adventure story dealing with issues of friendship and belonging. The adventure takes you into a mystical world with strange peoples and mythical creatures.	Contribute to our new Author Wall We have a challenge for you! Can you contact an author of a book you've just read – by writing them a letter or asking your parents to tweet or email them? Maybe ask them some questions or ask them if they have any promotional posters. Please send in any correspondence to Miss Bolwell to be added to our new Author Wall in the main building!
Amelia Fang and Barbaric Ball by Laura Ellen Anderson	Recommended by Mrs Johanson An exciting, adventurous tale with pumpkins and yetis. Follow along with Amelia, Squashy and Florence to see if Amelia makes it to the fangtastic ball.	RECENT/UPCOMING RELEASES The Bookworm by Debi Gliori (age 4-5) Is my teacher a robot? By Dave Cousins (age 6-7) Planet Omar: Unexpected Super Spy by Zanib Mian (age 8-9) The Somerset Tsunami by Emma Carroll (age 10-11) Crater Lake by Jennifer Killick (age 10-11)
