During the darkest part of a long Covid winter, Pewsey and Savernake Churches invite you to

HOUSEHOLDS OF HOPE

With Brother Samuel SSF

Through daily inspirational videos from Monday 30th November until Friday, Brother Sam will be seeking to give us all encouragement at this difficult time. This will be followed up each evening at 6pm by a zoom meeting

As Brother Sam says, "We'll be considering some of the experiences of the past months: powerlessness, loss, loneliness, uncertainty and abandonment. But we'll also be seeking signs of Good News for ourselves, for our world and for the whole of creation. I believe in 'the God of Hope' who is always at work to redeem, transform and open up new possibilities of life for the future. I look forward to exploring and sharing this hope with you."

He will also be preaching on Sunday 29th November in all our on-line services.

THE MESSENGER PLEASE CAN YOU HELP?

We need some people to either help count out or deliver the Messenger to churches

Can you help us count out the Messengers please?

Each month Derek the Messenger editor is delivering 400 magazines to the porch at St. John's in Pewsey. We need a kind person (or two kind people) to go and count them out into labelled piles for each of the churches and then leave them ready to be collected and delivered

Can you help deliver those piles of Messengers to each church porch or churchwarden (if church closed) in your double-cluster area?

We are looking for a small team of people who could deliver small piles of Messengers out to church porches in the Team. Up to now, the clergy have been doing this each month, but would be grateful if volunteers with a car could cover this task for them.

If you could help with either of these tasks, please contact Brenda for more details. Thank you very much.
