THE NHS AND OTHER KEY WORKERS

Today, with gratitude, we pray for those who serve this country in the National Health Service and pray that God would prosper the work of their hands.

As we respond to the Archbishops call to pray for our nation each day during November at 6 pm, here is the link to give you ideas and prayers to use at this time each day.

Remembrance Sunday 8th November

This important day will be marked in villages around the Team with wreath laying and acts of Remembrance. We encourage you to share in the online service www.valeofpewsey.org or the ceremony at the Cenotaph which will be broadcast on TV.

Due to current regulations numbers are limited to those involved in the ceremony but, of course you could also visit your local war memorial at some other point during these days of remembrance. You are welcome to join in holding a time of silence together at 11am at your own front door and know that you are marking this moment with others across the Team and the whole of the country. .
