THE WINNER OF THE RSCM MUSIC SUNDAY COMPOSITION COMPETITION 2021

We are very pleased to congratulate Chris Totney on winning the Royal School of Church Music Sunday Composition competition recently.

There were more than 200 entries with the task of setting the words of a prayer by Revd Dr Canon Gordon Giles, Canon Chancellor of Rochester Cathedral, to an anthem of their composition. The Chairman of the Judging Panel, Hugh Morris, said "...it became quickly apparent that we all agreed on the winning anthem. Chris's anthem was very strong, with a very well written organ part and vocal lines, and was well constructed. We felt this was the most outstanding of the anthems we had received."

The St Timothy Foundation

Many of you will have been filling our Lent Boxes through your sacrifice over the period of Lent, for which act of kindness we are very grateful. You may pass these on to any of our clergy or contact the Team Office on 01672 562221.

In view of the difficulties presented by this virus and the needs to make the second half of our donation for the school and students, we would welcome any on-line donations to our Bank account-30-92-63 03363288, (maybe in place of your Lent Box)!

We the trustees very much thank you for your interest and support.
