

Book Week 2022

Tuesday 1st March – Friday 4th March 2022

Shakespeare

Dear Parents,

Book Week is fast approaching (1st March – 4th March) and I hope this letter will give you some details about what we will all be up to.

The theme this year will be Shakespeare. EYFS and KS1 will explore themes from Shakespeare such as fairies and love whilst KS2 classes will explore a different play each. Each class will be busy with their own activities; however, there will be some common themes...

Virtual Author Workshops

We are very pleased to have booked several virtual author workshops during the week, these will include:

EYFS & KS1 – Catherine Rayner and Jo Empson

Yrs 3 & 4 – Sophie Kirtley and Michael Rosen

Yrs 5 & 6 – Lindsay Galvin, Emma Carroll and Michael Rosen

William Shakespeare

THINGS TO REMEMBER:

- Big Book swap on Wednesday 2nd March.
- Book Week Competition due in by Thursday 3rd March.
- KS1 bring favourite book on Friday 4th March.
- School Meeting on Friday 4th March at 2.15pm.
- Keep checking our school Twitter feed:
@w_woodborough

Over the week the following events will also be taking place:

Tuesday 1st March

Maple Class will be performing their book-related dance to Katy Perry's huge hit "Roar" at the Wyvern Theatre. The song promotes courage and self-belief both of which are core values at Woodborough, and we read lots of books around these themes from our Advent Books at Christmas.

Wednesday 2nd March

This year we will be holding The Big Book Swap. Each child is invited to bring in a book that is in good condition but that they have already read and enjoyed. The idea is that everyone in the school will swap a book and go home at the end of the day with a new story to enjoy and keep.

Thursday 3rd March – World Book Day

Thursday is World Book Day. Instead of dressing up this year, we are going to hold a competition. We would like each child to 'dress up' a toilet roll cardboard tube as their favourite book character. Entries should be brought into school on this day and given to class teachers. There will be prizes for the best dressed toilet roll tube!

Friday 4th March

We are inviting KS1 children to bring in their favourite stories from home (named please).

KS2 children will join them to share their books.

Join us (hopefully face-to-face) in the school hall at 2.15pm for our Book Week School Meeting – all classes will be sharing their work from the week!

As you can see our book week this year is jam-packed full of exciting activities for all of the children. In order for these to run as smoothly as possible we do require some parental support (please see below).

Finally, please keep checking the school Twitter feed at home as there will be regular updates and photos! You can comment on posts, which the children look forward to reading!

Many thanks for your support,

Mrs Wren – English Subject Leader

How can you help support Book Week?

- Help sort The Big Book Swap on Wednesday 2nd.