We're making more progress...

We might have been away for half term but the school site remained busy. The demolition team completed their work at the damaged end of school and moved off site. The next step is to erect purpose-built scaffolding and cover the site, enabling the areas below to dry out. Alongside this work, plans are being drawn up for how the rooms might be rebuilt and reconfigured.

Elsewhere, Oak classroom received a half term facelift. Walls were painted, new bright lighting installed and a fresh new carpet too. Whilst outside, the covered area received a smart new roof. We're very much looking forward to the forthcoming PTA AGM on 24th November when we hope to be able to conduct some guided tours!

Display boards and additional furniture arrived for the new temporary classrooms, enabling children in Maple and Cherry Classes to feel more at home as they returned this week.

Finally, having freed up some much needed space, our music teachers have returned to school this week and lessons have resumed. It's beginning to feel a little more like school again! ☺

Be sure to come and see us...

The deadline for applications to join Oak Class in September 2022 is midnight on 15th January 2022.

We've been delighted to welcome some prospective parents and children this week and are looking forward to resuming our Pre-school Taster Sessions this term (dates will be added to the school website very soon).

Please help us to spread the word...

Remembrance Service

Thursday 11th November

Unfortunately, this year PHE advice has prevented us from sharing an open invitation to our special Remembrance Service. Our whole school will meet outside to mark the two minute silence and this will be followed by the sharing of a pre-recorded video made by Willow Class.

Look out for both the video and photographs of our special commemoration on the school website on Thursday.

To the following children who have celebrated their birthdays since our last newsletter and during this week:

Finley (11)

Archie G-S (10)

Jake (10)

Here is a reminder of the menu for next week. All lunches should be booked via School Gateway (£2.30 per meal for pupils in Cherry, Elm, Lime & Willow Classes).

Don't forget to join us at the PTA AGM on 24.11.21 to try some samples!
