Dear Mrs Brewis

Back in September, we were sent a really lovely letter from one of your pupils, Molly in Year 4.

She told us about what an amazing Head Teacher you are and how, during the pandemic, you went above and beyond to make sure that all the children were happy and safe!

Molly then told us about the terrible fire you had not long after the children had returned to school. What a devastating thing to happen and so upsetting for everyone, staff and pupils alike.

However, Molly explained that you've done your utmost to get everyone back to school, and she's been very impressed with how you've demonstrated so well one of the school's values - courage!

We understand that seeing Molly's Blue Peter Sport Badge recently reminded you that you'd always wanted a Blue Peter Badge yourself!

Sadly, Blue Peter Badges can only be awarded to children aged between 6 and 15 or to adults who appear on our TV programme.

Although it is not possible to award you a Badge in reply to Molly's wonderful letter, we are absolutely delighted to award you a very special Blue Peter Emblem in recognition of all your work for the children!

It's a cloth patch which can be sewn onto a favourite item of clothing or perhaps a bag - we hope you'll enjoy wearing it with enormous pride.

PS: We're also enclosing some fun Blue Peter stickers for Molly to thank her for her letter! Sadly she didn't give us her own address, so we hope you can pass these on to her at school for us?
